"With an enviable situation just 100 metres away from a fine sandy beach near the quaint fishing village of Sete, this amazing contemporary-style villa boasts a private indoor spa, a cinema room and an outdoor, heatable pool - ideal for a full immersion in the unspoilt beauty of the French region of Languedoc-Roussillon".

Named after the beautiful views towards Mont St Clair, this villa is a jewel of contemporary design that makes ample use of large glass panels and stylish interior decor. Some of the villa's exciting features include a cinema room, a sauna and a fitness room and there are many other activities ranging from table tennis to the paddleboard, kayaks and wakeboards that are available for guests to use. In addition, boat hire and jet-skiing or parasailing can be arranged during your stay. Water-sports, activity parks, tree-top climbing, go-karting, horse-riding are some of the activities available nearby, as are golf and wine-tours. The Southern France region of Languedoc-Roussillon boasts a distinctive character and Sète, just 5 km from this villa, is a charming fishing village where you can dine in some amazing restaurants, explore the canals or take a boat trip to the lagoon, Étang de Thau, famous for its oysters. Other appealing destinations to explore include Mèze, Pézenas and the city of Montpellier whilst there are many other great seaside towns with brilliant beaches alive with summer activity.
