"Situated on the western tip of Crete, just 300 metres from the golden sandy beach of Loutraki, this villa with heatable, infinity pool is elegant and classic with romantic features such as a terrace that peers over the sea below: affording an unforgettable vista over the gulf and the sea!"

The verdant surroundings brimming with pine and olive trees convey a sense of serene tranquillity to this property which features an on-site bridge hanging along the property connecting the villa to a unique seating and lookout area that peers over the sea. Swing in the hammock under the trees or take a refreshing dip in the swimming pool while the children play in their very own private playground; table tennis and table soccer are also among the excellent entertainment options available for guests. The interior of the villa blends traditional elements with a sophisticated and contemporary decorative approach.
