"This grand period villa on the shores of Lake Maggiore commands superb views over the elegant town of Stresa and the lake - just a few hundred metres away - a pool and tennis court against the magnificent backdrop of the Italian Alps complete the enchanting setting of you next memorable holiday".

Situated within walking distance from shops, restaurants and the tree-lined lake promenade in Stresa, Palazzo Vita Nova is a wonderful luxury home with a remarkable architecture and timeless elegance brought up-to-date with the latest comforts. The spacious and warm accommodation is set over three floors, making this villa great for large groups and families. Within the courtyard terrace is a large, private swimming pool that's surrounded by sun loungers, with a pool house close by. There's also a charming pergola with outdoor seating for enjoying al fresco meals and a parasol-shaded lounge area for pre-dinner drinks. Fantastic extra features found around the spacious grounds are a tennis court, pétanque terrain and even a chapel.
