"Composed of three separate cabana-style cottages typical of this coastal region of Portugal, this is a characterful beach family villa affording uninterrupted views over expansive fields and a lagoon, just a walk from the beach near Comporta".

A larger cabana houses the main living area and the kitchen with the three bedrooms situated in two further cottages, all arranged around a lovely pool and linked via decked pathways with pergolas and covered terraces.

With maritime-inspired themes drawn from the fishing tradition on the nearby coast, this villa features ample use of local materials, high ceilings, exposed wooden beams and chic interiors. This is a place in which to relax and explore the beautiful surrounding area with Pego and Carvalhal beaches both located just a walk away from the villa.
