"This is a beautifully constructed traditional villa in a typical 'Ibicenco' style, finished with incredible modern touches."

Close to the beautiful bays of Cala Bassa and Cala Conta, this is an ideal holiday home, with bedrooms distributed among the main house and 3 separate bungalows.

Located on the west coast of Ibiza, San Agustin is a picturesque village, untouched by modern tourism and a wonderful place to wander around and take in the scenery. The whitewashed church is very beautiful and there is a little bar which opens after 9 each evening. The beaches in the area are particularly good for launching boats and hiring a small sail boat or chartering a fishing boat. There are some remarkable fishing waters just off the coast of Ibiza, with a whole host of fish species found in the area.

The main house comprises of a lounge area with two large comfortable sofas and chairs, TV and access to two terraces, one to an outdoor dining area and the other to the pool terrace. There is an indoor dining area to the side of the lounge which leads up some steps to the fully equipped modern kitchen where you will find a breakfast table and a further outdoor covered dining area. The house benefits from a laundry area with washing machine and tumble dryer located next to one of the bungalows.
