"The picturesque village of Puerto Pollensa is just a stroll away from this luxury, fully renovated period property built against the dramatic backdrop on the Tramuntana Mountains in north Mallorca - a truly enchanting home with private pool immersed in stunning tropical gardens".

This unique, characterful property comprises three separate buildings with the main house dating back to the 16th century. Many original features adorn the fully restored 'casita' including wooden beams, tiles and a horse feeding trough turned into a pretty bar. The result of the meticulous restoration project is an absolutely charming country residence plunged into vast tropical gardens encompassing ample lawn areas, shrubs and exotic palm trees surrounding the shaped pool. The backdrop of imposing mountains complete this impressive private setting. Puerto Pollensa is within walking distance from this villa and its distinctive horse-shaped bay, its numerous restaurants, bars and village market make it an attractive choice for your evenings out or days on the beach, whilst on holiday in Mallorca.
