Originally built in the 1950s for the daughter of Viceroy of India, this property has been completely renovated and transformed into a stylish villa for relaxing, superior holidays surrounded by verdant Mediterranean gardens, for up to 12 guests on the island of Corfu. The generous exteriors feature a fabulous swimming pool as well as an alluring Jacuzzi; the gardens are dotted with trees and flowering shrubs, and marvelous lounging and dining areas shaded by bamboo pergolas, all against the calming backdrop of the infinite blue waters. There are also separate spa quarters with a Hammam room and gym equipment, enhancing the relaxing and pampering ambience of the place. To ensure the guests won't have to worry about a thing, this villa provides daily maid service as well as breakfast preparation (the cost of grocery is excluded).
